8. Discuss/ Approve 2023 Legislative topics potentially affecting Caregivers (For Possible Action):

Cheryl Dinnell, Executive Director

- AB78 - Family Caregivers may be relieved of their role in dispensing medication if JDT programs can administer medication without a nurse.
- AB100 – Family caregiver needs/capability to give care will be assessed so that resources can be offered to them as they provide care at home.
- AB116 – Families are given information on Down Syndrome when a pre-term or newborn diagnosis is made, so they are connected with resources and support as soon as possible.
- AB202 – Allow family caregivers to be in communication with/monitor care of a care recipient, without being there in person, by electronic means.
- AB208 – Family caregivers of certain care recipients would be able to become paid caregivers.
- SB156 – Open Meeting Law public meetings, through remote technology, still need to protect full participation of people with disabilities.
