

OHIO STATEWIDE INDEPENDENT LIVING COUNCIL

BYLAWS

Revised September, 2018

PREAMBLE

The Ohio Statewide Independent Living Council (OSILC) shall be committed to promoting a philosophy of independent living, which includes a philosophy of consumer control, peer support, self-help, self-determination, equal access and individual and systems advocacy, in order to maximize the leadership, empowerment, independence, and productivity of individuals with disabilities, and the integration and full inclusion of individuals with disabilities into the mainstream of American society.

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this organization shall be Ohio Statewide Independent Living Council, hereinafter referred to as OSILC.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

Pursuant to the Ohio Revised Code Sections 107.17 and 107.18, and the Rehabilitation Act as reauthorized by the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), the Ohio Statewide Independent Living Council (OSILC) is established for the following purposes:

- To develop with the Directors of the Centers for Independent Living in Ohio a State Plan for Independent Living for Ohioans with significant disabilities, which will be reviewed and/or revised not less than once every three years;
- To serve as the monitor and guide for the implementation of the federally approved state plan;
- To promote and advocate for the delivery of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act's five core independent living (IL) services;
- To provide guidance and consultation for the development and expansion of independent living services on a statewide basis;

- To establish and support a statewide network of Centers for Independent Living and IL programs;
- To perform all other authorities in the State Plan for Independent Living;
- To act as liaison and link among Ohio Centers for Independent Living (CILs), programs providing independent living services, vocational rehabilitation services (as established under Title I of the Rehabilitation Act) and other statewide agencies or organizations serving the interest of individuals with disabilities; and to advocate, both through its own example and the provision of training for others, for Ohioans with disabilities in the enactment of principles and values espoused by independent living philosophy.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERS

Section 1. Classification.

- A. Regular Member. The Voting Members of OSILC shall consist of fourteen (14) Members appointed by the Governor of Ohio, one of whom is a Center for Independent Living Director chosen by the Directors of the Centers for Independent Living within the State.
- B. Ex-Officio Member. The Governor shall appoint five (5) Ex-Officio, non-voting Members including one from the Opportunities for Ohioans with Disabilities, and four (4) representatives chosen from among other State agencies that provide services for individuals with disabilities, including; the Ohio Developmental Disabilities Council, , the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services, the Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities, and the Ohio Department of Transportation.

Section 2. Qualifications for OSILC Membership

- A. Appointment. The Governor shall appoint individuals who are knowledgeable about Centers for Independent Living, independent living services and independent living philosophy. OSILC will make recommendations for appointments to the Governor.
- B. Composition. A majority of the membership shall be comprised of individuals with disabilities who are not employed by an independent living center or state agency. The remaining Members shall be people who themselves have disabilities, or parents, guardians, or advocates for people who have disabilities.

- C. Centers for Independent Living Representative. One Voting Member shall be a CIL Director selected by the Directors of Centers for Independent Living who represents them and serves at their pleasure.
- D. Recommendations for membership. In making recommendations for appointments, OSILC shall consider diversity of disabilities represented, geographic distribution and cultural diversity of Members.

Section 3. Term of Service

- A. Voting Members are appointed by the Governor and shall serve a three-year term. Members may serve for 90 days beyond the expiration of their term, pending a new appointment by the Governor. If the Governor has not made the new appointment within ninety days, the seat on the Council shall stand vacant. One-third of the Members shall be appointed each year to assure continuity and stability for OSILC, when possible.
- B. Ex-officio Members are appointed by the Governor and shall serve a three-year term.
- C. Members may not serve for more than two consecutive three-year terms. However, a Member appointed to complete another Member's unfulfilled term shall serve the remainder of the unfulfilled term, and then is eligible to be appointed to two additional consecutive three-year terms.
- D. Regular Members may be re-appointed to OSILC after at least one year following the completion of their second consecutive three-year term.

Section 4. Vacancies.

A vacancy on OSILC should be filled by appointment by the Governor within three (3) months of the date of the vacancy, or at least as soon as is possible.

Section 5. Resignation or Removal

- A. Resignation – If a Member chooses to resign, the Member must submit a resignation in writing to the Governor with copies to the Chair of OSILC and the Executive Director. The Member should provide sixty days' notice of the Member's intention to resign.

B. Removal.

1. OSILC may recommend to the Governor that a Member who misses two consecutive meetings be replaced, unless the Member has provided a good cause reason to the Chair or the Executive Director of the reason for the absences.
2. OSILC may recommend to the Governor that a Member who violates the OSILC Ethics Policy be replaced.
3. Recommendation for replacement shall require a 2/3 vote in the affirmative of those present and voting at a regular or special meeting of the OSILC.
4. Ohio Revised Code § 3.17 states:

“Any member of a board, commission, council, board of trustees of an institution of higher education, or other public body of the state, except a member of the general assembly or a judge of any court in the state, who fails to attend at least three-fifths of the regular and special meetings held by that board, commission, council, board of trustees, or public body during any two-year period forfeits the member’s position on that board, commission, council board of trustees, or public body.”

ARTICLE IV. OFFICERS

Section 1. Elected Officers

The elected officers of the OSILC shall be a Chair, a Vice-Chair, and a Treasurer.

Section 2. Election of Officers
