2. The following actions are prohibited:

   a. No Commission member or immediate family member mentioned in 6.9(1) above shall seek to influence any vote regarding the awarding of a contract, a grant or other business from the Commission when that member the individual knows that he or she has a direct or indirect financial interest in the awarding of such a contract or grant or other business.

      1) “Direct financial interest” is a situation that would result in a pecuniary benefit in the form of cash, salary or property to a person or his/her immediate family;

      2) “Indirect financial interest” is any situation that will result in a financial advantage to another person or organization with which a person has a relationship or association.

   b. Except as compensation or reimbursement provided for by NRS Chapter 427A426, no Commission member, or his/her immediate family, may directly receive funds, including any portion of his/her salary, from any grant or contract funded by the Commission without first disclosing his or relationship to a person or entity seeking a grant, contract or other business from the Commission.
3. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit any firm, agency or organization that any Commission member or immediate family member is associated with from appearing before the Commission as part of the normal course business by the firm, agency or organization. Nor shall it be construed that employment in any firm, agency, or organization that any Commission member or immediate family member is associated with prohibit any Commissioner from engaging in discussion of, presentation on, or vote on business that comes before the Commission as part of the normal course of its activities.

4. Any Commission member, or family member of a Commissioner, who is a recipient of services from any division of the Department shall not be construed as having a conflict solely as a result of having a disability, being a recipient of services from any division of the Department or having a familial relationship with an individual with a disability or recipient of services from a division within the Department.

5. Any Commission member who is also a consumer of services from any agency, organization or project that receives funds through the Division shall not be considered to have a conflict of interest if his or her participation with that agency, organization or project is only as a consumer of services and he or she does not exercise any administrative or decision-making authority in that project or organization.

6. All Commission members shall disclose conflicts of interest to the Chief and the Commission, including uncertain or potential conflicts, as soon as the conflict becomes apparent. Commission members have an ongoing duty to disclose any conflicts of interest.

7. A disclosure of a conflict, including refraining from voting on applicable items, shall be made at all applicable times.

8. If a Commission member is uncertain whether a conflict may exist in a specific situation, the Commission shall determine if a conflict exists in consultation with the Chief and other Division or Department staff as appropriate.

9. Disclosure of any conflicts of interest shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

10. A Commission member who discloses or has been found to have a conflict of interest must not participate in any discussion on any matter related to the subject of the conflict or unduly influence or vote in those areas where a conflict has arisen.

11. Any Commission member may bring suspected violations of this policy to the notice of the Commission Chairperson, including concerns/allegations of possible violation(s).

12. Once an allegation of a conflict has been brought to Commission Chairperson’s attention, the Chairperson shall notify the Chief and the Commission member alleged to have violated the conflict interest provisions of the allegation. Once a conflict has been reported:
a. The Chief or his/her designee will gather pertinent information regarding the alleged conflict of interest violation;
b. Provide such information to the Commission.

13. Once the pertinent information has been gathered by the Chief or his/her designee, the information will be forwarded to the Commission for a determination of whether a conflict of interest exists at the Commission’s next regularly scheduled meeting.

14. Once the Commission determines if an allegation of a conflict of interest violation has been substantiated, the Commission shall determine if the violation is intentional or unintentional.

15. If it is determined by a majority vote of the Commission that a violation of the conflict of interest provisions was intentional, the Commission shall vote on the appropriate sanction, up to and including recommendation for removal of the member found to have a conflict of interest to the Director.

16. If it is determined by a majority vote of the Commission that a violation of the conflict of interest provisions was unintentional, the Commission, in consultation with the Chief, and other Division staff as appropriate, shall define the area of the conflict of interest and instruct the Commission member to refrain from participation or discussion when that area is the subject of any Commission actions.

6.10 Article X: By-Laws

These Bylaws represent the rules of governance for the Commission on Services for Persons with Disabilities. They should be reviewed at least every three years to ensure applicability of guidance. When any changes to the by-law occur, they must be presented at the next regularly scheduled meeting, with changes approved by a simple majority of the voting members, with the current date of approval noted as a footer.

Comment [LAV4]: I think there are some confusing statement in this section and would like to discuss. I think it best to include the Director and Administrator on this list as well.
