4. Any member, or family member of a Commissioner, who is a recipient of services from any division of the Department shall not be construed as having a conflict solely as a result of having a disability, being a recipient of services from any division of the Department or having a familial relationship with an individual with a disability or recipient of services from a division within the Department.

5. Any member who is also a consumer of services from any agency, organization or project that receives funds through the Division shall not be considered to have a conflict of interest if his or her participation with that agency, organization or project is only as a consumer of services and does not exercise any administrative or decision-making authority in that project or organization.

6. All members shall disclose conflicts of interest to the Chair of the Commission/Subcommittee, including uncertain or potential conflicts, as soon as the conflict becomes apparent. Members have an ongoing duty to disclose any conflicts of interest.
7. A disclosure of a conflict, including refraining from voting on applicable items, shall be made at all applicable times.

8. If a member is uncertain whether a conflict may exist in a specific situation, the Commission/Subcommittee shall determine if a conflict exists in consultation with the Chief and other Division or Department staff as appropriate.

9. Disclosure of any conflicts of interest shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

10. A member who discloses or has been found to have a conflict of interest must not participate in any discussion on any matter related to the subject of the conflict or unduly influence or vote in those areas where a conflict has arisen.

11. Any member may bring suspected violations of this policy to the Commission/Subcommittee Chair.

12. Once an allegation of a conflict has been brought to Chair’s attention, the Chair shall notify the Chief and the member alleged to have violated the conflict of interest provisions of the allegation. Once a conflict has been reported:
   a) The Chief or his/her designee will gather pertinent information regarding the alleged conflict of interest violation;
   b) Provide such information to the Commission.

13. Once the pertinent information has been gathered by the Chief or his/her designee, the information will be forwarded to the Commission for a determination of whether a conflict of interest exists at the Commission’s next regularly scheduled meeting.

14. Once the Commission determines if an allegation of a conflict of interest violation has been substantiated, the Commission shall determine if the violation is intentional or unintentional.

15. If it is determined by a majority vote of the Commission that a violation of the conflict of interest provisions was intentional, the Commission shall vote on the appropriate sanction, up to and including recommendation for removal of the member found to have a conflict of interest to the Appointing Authority and Commission or Subcommittee.

16. If it is determined by a majority vote of the Commission that a violation of the conflict of interest provisions was unintentional, the Commission, in consultation with the Chief, and other Division staff as appropriate, shall define the area of the conflict of interest and instruct the Commission member to refrain from participation or discussion when that area is the subject of any Commission actions.
6.10 Article X: By-Laws

These Bylaws represent the rules of governance for the Commission on Services for Persons with Disabilities, Subcommittee on Communication Services for Persons who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing and Persons with Speech Disabilities and the Subcommittee on Integrated Employment. They should be reviewed at least every three years to ensure applicability of guidance. When any changes to the by-law occur, they must be presented at the next regularly scheduled meeting, with changes approved by a simple majority of the voting members, with the current date of approval noted as a footer.
