7. Presentation and Discussion: Discussion of the "Bill-Tracker-for-Legislative-Year-2025" Spreadsheet Provided by the Nevada Governor's Council on Developmental Disabilities and Review of Current Position or Advocacy Activities to Identify Possible Collaborations.

The Governor's Council on Developmental Disabilities is tracking anything that is related to the disability community councils and coalitions, and state agencies. On their website, (nevadadddcouncil.org), there is a tab for legislative information. The Bill Tracker sheet is on there and is updated regularly. They are currently tracking approximately 300 bills. Any ideas for educating or advocating at the legislature can be directed to the DD Council.

8. Presentation and Discussion: Presentation from Clark County School District Regarding A Pilot Program That Hired Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) to Provide Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) Within the School District.

Amy Coyne stated that there was no representative from Clark County School District to give the presentation but asked what this board would like to have in a presentation regarding this. The following items were requested:

How Clark County hires and bills for the Board Certified Behavior Analysts (BCBAs), and how to build the Registered Behavior Technicians (RBTs). Also, what are the ages that the employees are working with.

An overview of the pilot program. What grade levels are participating in the pilot program. How many schools are participating in the pilot program. How long has the pilot program been in place. What is the return of success in the pilot program for mitigating student behavior and class disruptions.

9. For Possible Action: Review and Discuss Possible Vote to Approve the Applied Behavior Analyst (ABA) Provider Survey from the Workforce Development Meeting, Held December 6, 2024.

The group discussed and revised the draft survey in real time.

Anna Marie Binder motioned to approve the revised Applied Analyst (ABA) Provider Survey from the Workforce Development Meeting, held December 6, 2024 implementing comments made. Linda Tran seconded. The members voted and the motion carried.
