4. Updates Regarding the Nevada Commission for Persons Who Are Deaf, Hard of Hearing or Speech Impaired
Eli Schwartz, Guest Commission Chairperson

Eli stated that Relay Nevada, CapTel caption services has hired a new outreach specialist for Las Vegas. Her name is Kimberly Fernandez. Obioma Officer is the new executive director for Deaf Centers of Nevada. Regarding the LEAD-K, Will Jenson have met with Senator Spearman and the legislative counsel bureau regarding a bill requirement using special education advisory for from a CPAC subcommittee. Two members of the Nevada Commission for Persons Who Are Deaf, Hard of Hearing are also on that subcommittee.

He also stated that the implementation of SB203 will only cover hearing aids, not implants, BAHA, ear molds or batteries. A relationship between the state and the hearing aid manufacturer needs to be established. The Nevada Commission for Persons Who Are Deaf, Hard of Hearing is developing a grant to support the program. Only children under the age of 13 and under the 400 percent of Poverty level are eligible for this program. There are an estimated 30 children who will need hearing aids during the first year and it will cost 45 to 50 thousand dollars to fund the first year.

He stated that the search for an executive director for the Nevada Commission for Persons Who Are Deaf, Hard of Hearing is on-going, and the commission hopes to announce a hire in March.

5. Discussion About Letter to the Governor Regarding Supported Legislation as relayed by the CSPD Legislative Subcommittee
Diane Thorkildson, Vice-Chair

This subcommittee has not met. It was decided that Kelli would take over as the chair of the subcommittee and they would meet. Dora Uchel would like to take part and they will contact Char to remain being a member. They will work with Dawn and Wendy regarding meeting set up.

6. Discussion and Approval of Letter to be Sent to Governor Sisolak Regarding Guidance on a Subcommittee for Integrated Employment (For Possible Action)
Regina Daniel, Subcommittee Chair

Regina stated that the subcommittee met and agreed to move the letter forward as drafted. She stated that she personally, would like to include records of success. Dawn will send out a report from the DD Council on successes they have had. The letter will be approved at the next meeting as a meeting agenda item.

7. Discussion Regarding Questions About the Nevada Early Intervention Services from the ADSD Caseload Evaluation Organization Report (CLEO)
Randi Humes, Management Analyst II, ADSD

Randi stated that, Regarding waiting lists, children who are defined as waiting for services at the time that the CLEO report is generated. Data entry timelines contribute to these reported numbers. When the prior month's data is looked at, it is often fewer children who are waiting. Currently, there is a slight shortage of speech therapists available to the state. Most programs are constantly recruiting for additional providers and trying to manage the providers that they do have, on staff. Delays in delivery of services are often due to parent or caregiver delays.

8. Discuss Recommendations and Applicants for New Members to Fill Five Current Commission Vacancies
Diane Thorkildson, Vice-Chair

Dawn stated that both Stacy Alaribe and Steven Cohen have put in applications and have not received appointments yet. She has been in touch with the director's office and is still waiting for an update. There are still three open vacancies for voting members. She stated that the commission's makeup is 11 voting members of which six must be either persons with disabilities or parents or family members of individuals with disabilities. All commissions and councils have had issues with getting appointments done in a timely manner.

9. Discussion and Make Possible Determination of Issues and Agenda Items to be Considered or Deliberated at the Next Meeting (For Possible Action)
Diane Thorkildson, Vice-Chair

Move forward agenda items No. 5 and 6 to hear what the subcommittees have done since this meeting
