Who we are

Part of the Nevada Center for Excellence in Disabilities

Serving the state through training, research and dissemination related to issues that matter to people with disabilities and their families.

What we do

- Support families of children and youth with special health care needs as they seek healthcare
- Increase family -professional partnerships and alliances
- Improve care coordination
- Work to improve healthcare outcomes and satisfaction

What's unique about the Family Navigation Network?

- Family-center and family-led
 - Trust families' experience and knowledge
 - Listen to families when they say they need help
- Empower families to drive change
 - Build support networks where needed and connect to existing efforts

How do we do this?

- One-on-one family support
- Family-centered trainings on healthcare navigation
- Collaboration with partners

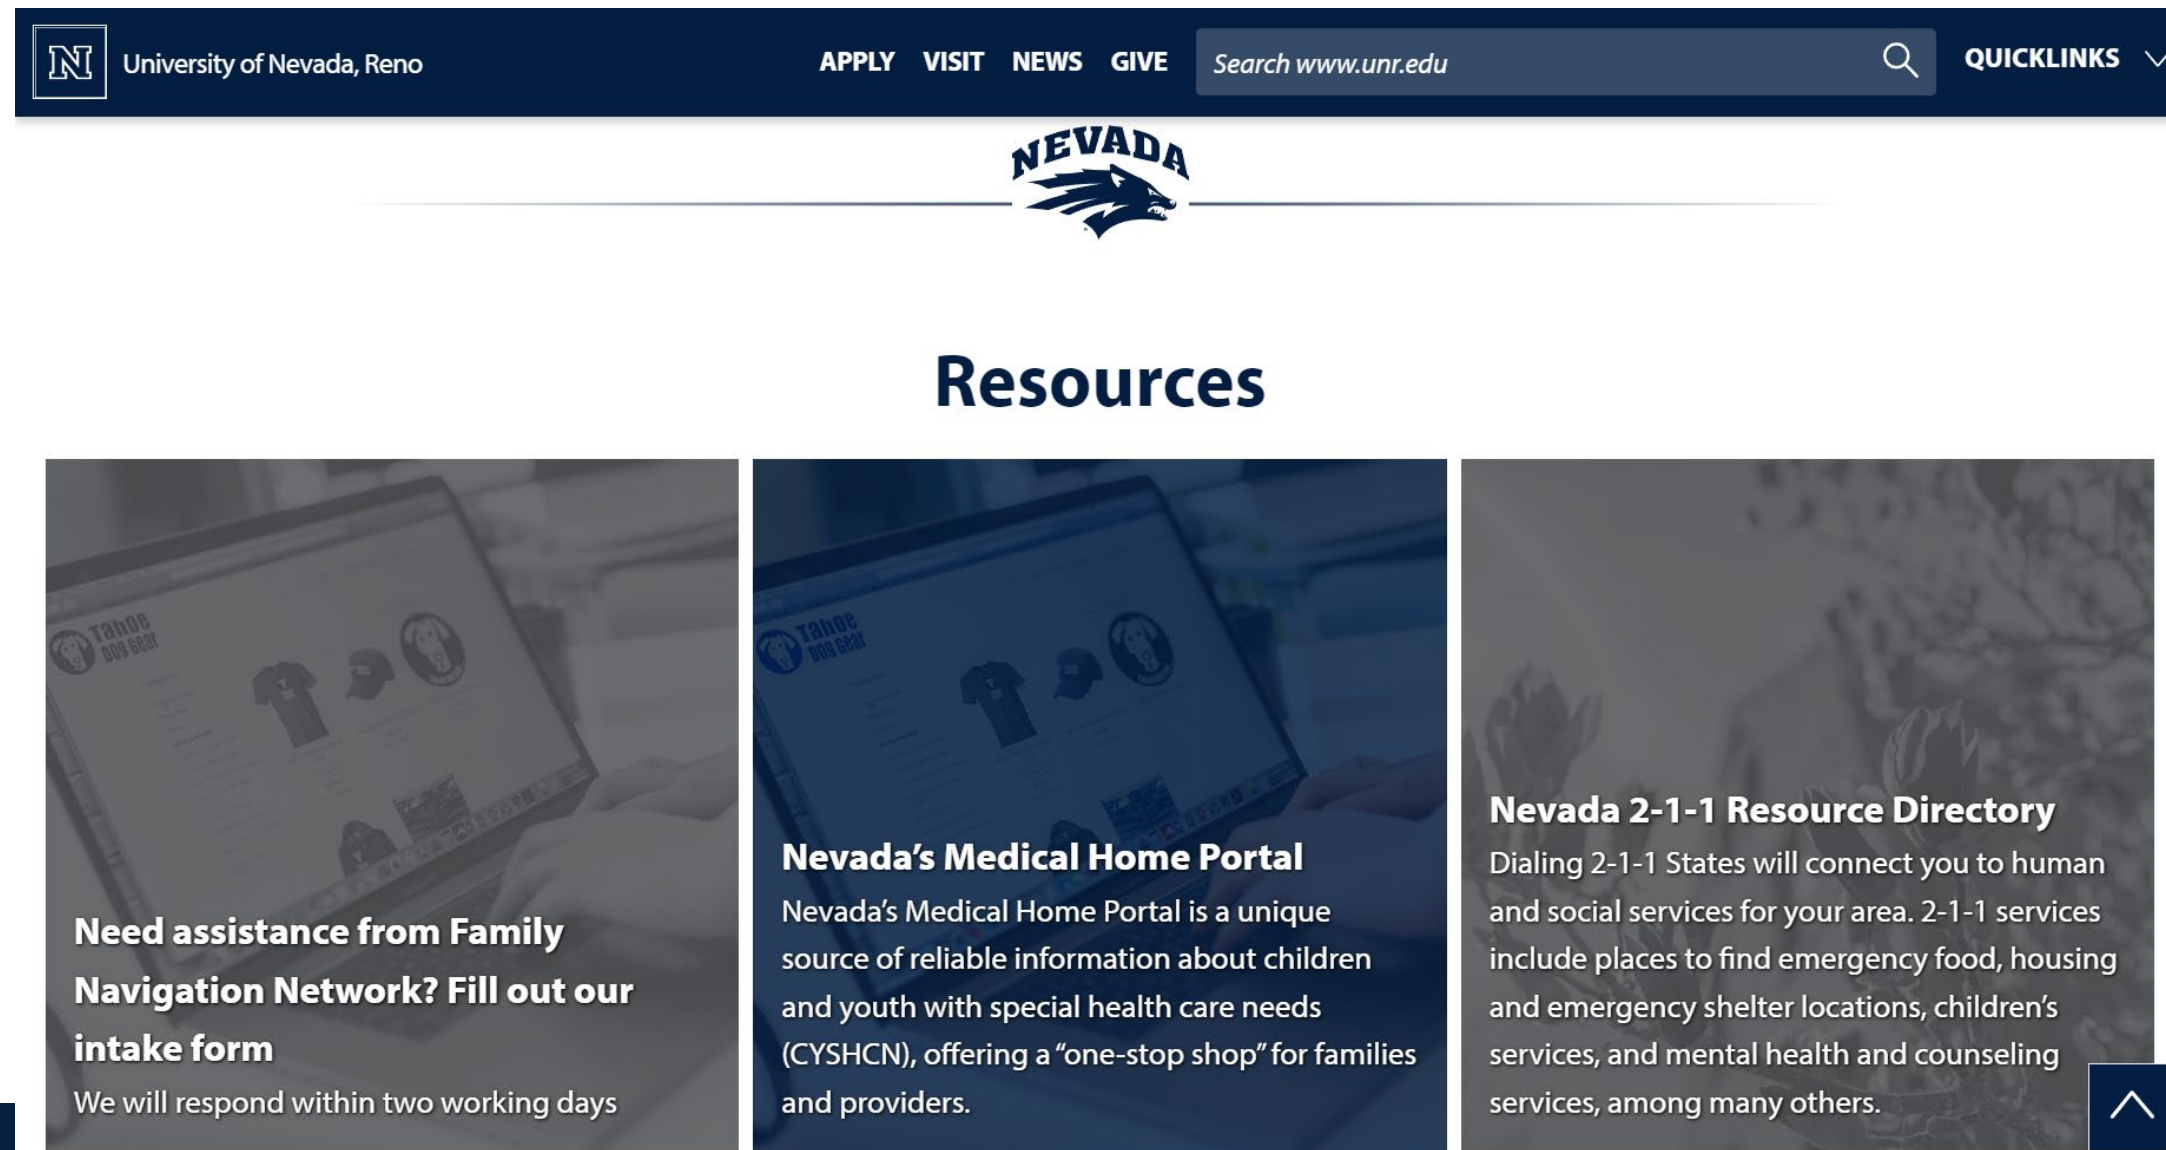

We can help with:

- Medicaid and CHIP applications
- Information and referrals for:
 - Community support programs
 - Healthcare and service providers
- Family-centered healthcare decision-making
- Youth healthcare transition
- Financing options
- Peer support related to healthcare navigation

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the University of Nevada, Reno website. It includes the university logo, navigation links for 'APPLY', 'VISIT', 'NEWS', and 'GIVE', a search bar with the text 'Search www.unr.edu', and a 'QUICKLINKS' dropdown menu. Below the navigation bar is the 'NEVADA' logo featuring a mountain range and a bison head. The main content area is titled 'Resources' and contains three cards. The first card, 'Need assistance from Family Navigation Network? Fill out our intake form', includes a sub-headline and the text 'We will respond within two working days'. The second card, 'Nevada's Medical Home Portal', describes it as a 'one-stop shop' for families and providers. The third card, 'Nevada 2-1-1 Resource Directory', explains that dialing 2-1-1 connects users to various human and social services. A small upward-pointing arrow icon is visible in the bottom right corner of the screenshot.
