1. Personal financial gain and private benefit to a Commission member or his/her spouse, child, stepchild, parent or stepparent through the member's participation on the Commission shall be considered a conflict of interest.
2. The following actions are prohibited:
 - a. No Commission member or immediate family member mentioned in 6.9(1) above shall seek to influence any vote regarding the awarding of a contract, a grant or other business from the Commission when the individual knows that he or she has a direct or indirect financial interest in the awarding of such a contract or grant or other business.
 - i. "Direct financial interest" is a situation that would result in a pecuniary benefit in the form of cash, salary or property to a person or his/her immediate family;
 - ii. "Indirect financial interest" is any situation that will result in a financial advantage to another person or organization with which a person has a relationship or association.
 - b. Except as compensation or reimbursement provided for by NRS Chapter 427A, no Commission member, or his/her immediate family, may directly receive funds, including any portion of his/her salary, from any grant or contract funded by the Commission without first disclosing his or relationship to a person or entity seeking a grant, contract or other business from the Commission.
3. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit any firm, agency or organization that any member or immediate family member is associated with from appearing before the Commission as part of the normal course business by the firm, agency or organization. Nor shall it be construed that employment in any firm, agency, or organization that any member or immediate family member is associated with prohibit any member from engaging in discussion of, presentation on, or vote on business that comes before the Commission as part of the normal course of its activities.
4. Any member, or family member of a Commissioner, who is a recipient of services from any division of the Department shall not be construed as having a conflict solely as a result of having a disability, being a recipient of services from any division of the Department or having a familial relationship with an individual with a disability or recipient of services from a division within the Department.
5. Any member who is also a consumer of services from any agency, organization or project that receives funds through the Division shall not be considered to have a conflict of interest if his or her participation with that agency, organization or project is only as a consumer of services and does not exercise any administrative or decision-making authority in that project or organization.

6. All members shall disclose conflicts of interest to the Chair of the Commission, including uncertain or potential conflicts, as soon as the conflict becomes apparent. Members have an ongoing duty to disclose any conflicts of interest.
7. A disclosure of a conflict, including refraining from voting on applicable items, shall be made at all applicable times.
8. If a member is uncertain whether a conflict may exist in a specific situation, the Commission shall determine if a conflict exists in consultation with the Division or Department staff as appropriate.
9. Disclosure of any conflicts of interest shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.
10. A member who discloses or has been found to have a conflict of interest must not participate in any discussion on any matter related to the subject of the conflict or unduly influence or vote in those areas where a conflict has arisen.
11. Any member may bring suspected violations of this policy to the Commission Chair.
12. Once an allegation of a conflict has been brought to Chair's attention, the Chair shall notify the Division and the member alleged to have violated the conflict-of-interest provisions of the allegation. Once a conflict has been reported:
 - a. The Division will gather pertinent information regarding the alleged conflict of interest violation;
 - b. Provide such information to the Commission.
13. Once the pertinent information has been gathered by the Division, the information will be forwarded to the Commission for a determination of whether a conflict of interest exists at the Commission's next regularly scheduled meeting.
14. Once the Commission determines if an allegation of a conflict-of-interest violation has been substantiated, the Commission shall determine if the violation is intentional or unintentional.
15. If it is determined by a majority vote of the Commission that a violation of the conflict-of-interest provisions was intentional, the Commission shall vote on the appropriate sanction, up to and including recommendation for removal of the member found to have a conflict of interest to the Governor and Commission.
16. If it is determined by a majority vote of the Commission that a violation of the conflict of interest provisions was unintentional, the Commission, in consultation with the Division staff as appropriate, shall define the area of the conflict of interest and instruct the Commission member to refrain from participation or discussion when that area is the subject of any Commission actions.

Article X: By-Laws

1. These Bylaws represent the rules of governance for the Commission for Persons Who Are Deaf, Hard of Hearing or Speech Impaired. They should be reviewed at least every three years to ensure applicability of guidance. When any changes to the by-law occur, they must be presented at the next regularly scheduled meeting, with changes approved by a simple majority of the voting members, with the current date of approval noted as a footer.

Article XI: Ethics

1. All Commission members agree to follow and practice ethical practices as outline in NAC 281A.
