

The Communication Access Services (CAS) program is pleased to announce services for Deaf, Hard of Hearing and Speech Impaired statewide in Nevada are being transferred to new community partners starting October 1, 2021.

Are you in need of free telecommunications and/or other assistive technology?

Please contact University of Nevada, Reno's (UNR) equipment distribution program at 833-427-1672 or cas-telecom@unr.edu. They have a new website coming soon.

Are you a family with a deaf or hard of hearing child between ages 0 to 21 and need resources or role modeling?

Please contact Nevada Hands & Voices (NVHV) at 775-351-1959 or info@nvhandsandvoices.org. You may also visit their website at www.nvhandsandvoices.org.

Are you a deaf or hard of hearing adult between ages 22 and up and need help accessing services such as employment, healthcare, education or other social services?

A Nevada Care Connection (NVCC) Resource Center can help:

Are you deaf and need to learn sign language, or in need to learn sign language to communicate with deaf or hard of hearing children or adults in your family or workplace?

Communication Service for the Deaf (CSD) will be starting American Sign Language (ASL) classes February of 2022. If you are interested, please contact cascinfo@adsd.nv.gov or 702-830-9103 to be placed on the wait list and to receive additional resources. We will provide more details about CSD in a future announcement.
