* New Language Begins Now* NAC 435.XXX Provision of Skilled Care Services

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, a provider of health care may authorize a member of the direct support staff of a provider of supported living arrangement services to perform specific skilled care services for a person with an intellectual or developmental disability without obtaining any professional license required for a provider of health care or his or her assistant to perform the services if:

   (a) The skilled care services to be performed are services that a person without an intellectual or developmental disability usually and customarily would personally perform without the assistance of a provider of health care.

   (b) The provider of health care determines that the member of the direct support staff of a provider of supported living arrangement services has the knowledge, skill, and ability to perform the services competently.

   (c) The provider of health care determines that the procedures involved in providing the services are simple and the performance of such procedures by a member of the direct support staff of a provider of supported living arrangement services does not pose an increased risk to the person with an intellectual or developmental disability.

   (d) The provider of health care determines that the condition of the person with an intellectual or developmental disability is stable and predictable; and

   (e) A member of the direct support staff of a provider of supported living arrangement services agrees with the provider of health care to refer the person with an intellectual or developmental disability to the provider of health care if:

      (1) The condition of the person with an intellectual or developmental disability changes or a new medical condition develops.

      (2) The progress or condition of the person with an intellectual or developmental disability after the provision of the service is different than expected.

      (3) An emergency develops; or

      (4) Any other situation described by the provider of health care develops.

2. A provider of health care that authorizes a member of the direct support staff of a provider of supported living arrangement services to perform certain services shall note in the medical records of the person with an intellectual or developmental disability who receives such services:

(a) The specific services that the provider of health care has authorized the member of the direct support staff of a provider of supported living arrangement services to perform; and

(b) That the requirements of this section have been satisfied.

3. After a provider of health care has authorized a member of the direct support staff of a provider of supported living arrangement services to perform specific services for a person with an intellectual or developmental disability, no further authorization or supervision by the provider of health care is required for the continued provision of those services.

4. A member of the direct support staff of a provider of supported living arrangement services shall not:

(a) Perform services pursuant to this section for a person with an intellectual or developmental disability who resides in a medical facility.

(b) Perform any specific skilled care services for a person with an intellectual or developmental disability which is not specifically authorized by a provider of health care pursuant to subsection 1.

5. As used in this section:

(a) “Direct support staff” means any member of the staff of a provider of supported living arrangement services who works directly with a person with an intellectual disability or a person with a developmental disability to provide supported living arrangement services.

(b) “Provider of health care” means:

(1) A physician licensed pursuant to chapter 630, 630A or 633 of NRS;

(2) An advanced practice registered nurse certified pursuant to chapter 632 of NRS; or

(3) A physician assistant licensed pursuant to chapter 630 or 633 of NRS.
